DEPARTING

How To Get There

We suggest that you arrive at least one day prior to the start of the Andalucia bike tour, which will enable you to adjust to the time zone and minimize the risk of missing the trip start due to flight-related delays.

Before: Granada, Spain

Arrive early to explore the vibrant city of Granada. Filled with great restaurants and bars, it is also most famous for the Alhambra citadel, an impressive Moorish fortress with grand archways and delicate ornamental mosaics. Wander through this enchanting city and step backward in time as you explore the cobblestone streets to discover Islamic architecture, monumental churches, and a feast of Spanish tapas bars nestled among Arab style street life. Consider using Granada as a hub from which to take day trips to Málaga, Gibraltar, nearby coastal towns, and perhaps even Morocco. We recommend the following accommodations for your pre-trip hotel:

PARADOR GRANADA

This highly recommended Parador hotel is located in the Alhambra complex among gardens and fountains. A former monastery, and now a luxury hotel, it is a unique experience where you can hear the echoes of flamenco from the Albaicin and see the sunrise at the foot of the walls of the Nasrid palaces.

www.parador.es/en

PALACIO DE MARIANA PINEDA

Built in the 17th century by an aristocratic family, this palace has been refurbished into a luxury hotel in the historic part of Granada. Relax in beautifully designed rooms or enjoy the spa!

HOSPE PALACIO DE LOS PATOS

This avant-garde hotel is located in the heart of Granada in a 19th-century palace which has been renovated following the architectural guidelines of old Andalucian palaces to preserve its historical character. Enjoy the garden terrace with fountains and aromatic plants, which also plays host to the hotel’s signature restaurant, Los Patos.

After: Sevilla, Spain

The capital of Andalucia is beautiful Sevilla, a thriving city full of historical significance and modern life. The grand Cathedral and the exquisite Real Alcázar Palace are not... to be missed. Visit the Museo del Baile Flamenco to learn the history of this gorgeous and popular music and dance. Enjoy an endless choice of tapas bars, making sure to hit the Santa Cruz and Alfalfa neighborhoods. Be sure to take a stroll along the top of the Parasol Metropol at sunset, a contemporary sculptural building within the old city where you can take in the views from above as well as see archeological finds below. We recommend the following accommodations for your post-trip hotel:

HOSPES CASAS DEL REY BAEZA

Mixing elements of Arabic and European styles makes this hotel pure Andalucia. Tucked away in the desirable Santa Cruz district, you can enjoy the fresh interiors of your room or go up to the rooftop patio to enjoy the lounge area by the pool, before heading out your door to a great variety of restaurants, bars and city sights, all close to the hotel.

HOTEL AMADEUS

Amadeus is a unique, musically-themed hotel set within an 18th-century manor house in the central Santa Cruz neighborhood. Although recently refurbished, the hotel has retained much of its original charm while adding modern touches. All rooms are uniquely decorated and the property also features a rooftop patio with views of practically the entire historical center. Feel free to try out any of the instruments available or listen to one of the hosted concerts. Or retreat, undisturbed, to the comforts of your room.
