Nestled on 4,200 untouched acres adjoining the Great Smoky Mountains National Park in eastern Tennessee, Blackberry Farm is a truly unique place on earth. Consistently ranked among the best hotels in the world, the Farm offers a stunning setting in the foothills of the Southern Appalachians and a chance to slip quietly into a different pace of life that is tuned more to the sunrise than the clock. This trip is so special, National Geographic included it in their list of Top 50 Tours of a Lifetime. It’s a love poem to a vanishing America, where it’s all too easy to wile away your days in Southern style with a private tour of the grounds, fantastic riding and an evening by a campfire with your new friends. In addition, this exclusive property offers a wide array of other activities—choose between a fly fishing lesson or an afternoon on horseback as part of your trip. But you’ll be forgiven if some of your favorite moments are simply spent in a rocking chair on the famous Blackberry front lawn, soaking up the long view down the valley and the amazing smells drifting from the Main House kitchen.

HOTELS

BLACKBERRY FARM
WALLAND, TENNESSEE
In 1939, Mrs. Florida Lasier of Chicago snagged her silk stockings on a wild blackberry bramble while exploring the idyllic Smoky Mountain... foothills, and the name Blackberry Farm was born. Thirty-nine years later, the Beall family invested their hearts and souls in the same romantic site that has become their family home and lifelong passion. Today, one of America's most celebrated intimate luxury hotels beckons discerning guests who aspire to escape modern-day frenzy and slip into a Blackberry state of mind. Situated on a pastoral 4,200-acre estate in the Great Smoky Mountains, Blackberry will show you the many reasons why it is one of the top rated properties in the world. On your Trek Travel trip, you will stay in one of the Farm's Historic Rooms, which are the original rooms dating back to the Farm's beginning. These small, intimate rooms are individually decorated with period antiques and represent the true essence of country-house style. Giving a sense of "coming home" to Blackberry Farm, guests enjoy the convenience of staying in the Main House, where all breakfasts and lunches are served during your trip. Expect a feeling of warmth and coziness as if enjoying a private bedroom at a great country estate.

Before & After: Knoxville, Tennessee

Located on the banks of the Tennessee River and next to the University of Tennessee’s flagship campus, Knoxville is a Southern city with an Appalachian heart. A vibrant folk art and music scene, along with a deep respect for the historic, drives the vibe in the city. The heart of downtown Knoxville is Market Square, which features bustling shops, cafes, and pubs. In the winter the Square plays host to an outdoor ice skating rink and in the spring and summer you’ll find it packed with music fans attending free concerts. One block over are the restaurants, shops and theaters of Gay Street, home to the historic Tennessee and Bijou Theaters. If you are lucky you might catch a show while you are in town, or check out the WDVX Blue Plate Special—a live performance radio show held at noon, Monday through Saturday, at the Knoxville Visitor Center on the corner of Gay Street and Summit Hill Drive (on Fridays the show moves to Barley’s Taproom, also easy walking distance from downtown). It’s free and the music will knock your socks off! We recommend the following accommodations for your pre and post trip hotel (please note that on home game weekends for the University of Tennessee football team that downtown hotels may require a 2-night minimum stay):

THE OLIVER HOTEL

The Oliver Hotel is one of downtown Knoxville’s only boutique hotels, and is located on Market Square for easy access to the best that downtown has to offer. It is located in the historic Peter Kern Bakery building, which was built in 1876 and converted to a guest house for the World’s Fair, held in Knoxville in 1982. Completely remodeled in 2011, this hotel now offers modern luxury while retaining the feeling of a historic building. The on-site restaurant, Tupelo Honey, offers delightful southern favorites with a modern twist and is immensely popular. Save time to visit the speakeasy-inspired Peter Kern Library, where you can kick back with a hand-crafted cocktail possibly invented by the server who made it for you.

CROWNE PLAZA DOWNTOWN KNOXVILLE

It features a large fitness center, indoor pool, on-site dining and lounge area and convenient parking deck.
