DAILY ITINERARY

2018

Day

TODAY'S RIDE:

Lourdes to Soulor Loop
Approximately 53 miles with 4,100 feet of climbing

SHORT OPTION:

Lourdes to Col du Soulor w/ shuttle
Approximately 31 miles with 3,800 feet of climbing

AVID OPTION:

Lourdes to Soulor Loop with Col d'Aubisque
Approximately 65 miles with 5,500 feet of climbing

DESCRIPTION:

Your Trek Travel guides will meet you at the Hotel Gallia & Londres (26 Avenue Bernadette Soubirous- BP83 Lourdes) at 8:30 AM for a round of introductions and a bike fit. This morning you'll appreciate the true grit and sheer determination of the pros as you climb the Col du Soulor, often featured in the Tour de France. It begins with a gentle ascent then soon ratchets up to a severe 9% grade. Take a break for lunch at the summit at a local bistro, or continue on to summit Col d'Aubisque, from where you can enjoy a well-earned sweeping descent and scenic ride all the way back to Lourdes. This evening we'll meet to discuss the days ahead over cocktails and dinner at a charming restaurant in town.

TODAY'S RIDE:

Lourdes to St. Lary via Col du Tourmalet & Hourquette d'Ancizan

Approximately 65 miles with 9,500 feet of climbing

SHORT OPTION:

Lourdes to Payolle via Col du Tourmalet w/ shuttle

Approximately 45 miles with 7,500 feet of climbing

AVID OPTION:

Lourdes to St. Lary via Col du Tourmalet, Hourquette, & Pla d'Adet

Approximately 74 miles with 12,300 feet of climbing

DESCRIPTION:

Today you confront one of the Pyrenees' legendary mountain passes: the mighty Col du Tourmalet. Cruise 12.5 miles along the valley floor following the river to Pierrefitte-Nestalas before climbing gently through the Gorges de Luz. With dramatic jagged cliffs above and a lively bubbling stream below, this section of the ride is incredibly picturesque. We'll ascend Tourmalet from the Barèges side - the same side the pros approached in 2012 - and where Andy Schleck and Alberto Contador confronted each other in the fog in 2010's deciding mountaintop finish. From here you'll descend to ride over the Col d'Aspin to the town of Saint Lary-Soulan. Or, if you still have power in your legs, ride one more climb up the Pla d'Adet, with an 8% average grade over the 6-mile climb, and grades reaching up to 12%.

TODAY'S RIDE:

Malaucene to Col du Suzette Loop

Approximately 18 miles with 1,400 feet of climbing

TODAY'S ACTIVITY:

Shuttle Pyrenees to Provence

DESCRIPTION:

This morning you'll rise early, bidding 'adieu' to the mountains of the Pyrenees and beginning the day's transfer to Provence and the home of Mont Ventoux. Take some time to rest, relax and watch the scenery change from the Pyrenean mountain landscapes to the vibrant lavender fields of Provence. This afternoon, with Ventoux as your backdrop, you'll ride through the vineyard-covered hillsides from one sleepy village to another. If you'd rather take a day off the bike to linger in one of Provence's quaint villages or take a dip in the pool, your guides are always there to accommodate. Tonight your home will be the historic Domaine des Tilleuls, where you and your travel companions will be treated to your first Provençal meal at an excellent local restaurant.

TODAY'S RIDE:

Malaucène to Mont Ventoux Loop

Approximately 31 miles with 5,800 feet of climbing

AVID OPTION:

Malaucène to Bedoin to Malaucène with double Ascent of Mont Ventoux

Approximately 55 miles with 9,200 feet of climbing

DESCRIPTION:

Prepare yourself for epic scenery and legendary riding today! The challenge is the mighty Mont Ventoux - 13.42 miles of climbing with no flat sections and an average grade of 10% through the middle 6.2 miles before you hit the moonscape. What makes this climb challenging is not just the ride itself, but also the weather. Intense winds or scorching heat can make this climb seem a hundred times more difficult than those found in the Alps. Your day will start early to give you the best opportunity to have a stellar climb. After taking a picture at the top to memorialize achieving this feat, you'll descend to Malaucène to enjoy a bistro lunch where you can relax and refuel before spinning back to the hotel. This evening you and your travel companions can explore this charming medieval village to dine in the bistro of your choice.

Approximately 27 miles with 4,600 feet of climbing

AVID OPTION:

La Chambre to La Grave with the Lacets du Monvernier, Col du Télégraphe and Col du Galibier

Approximately 55 miles with 9,000 feet of climbing

DESCRIPTION:

This morning you'll rise early and say "au revoir" to the lavender fields of Provence to focus on your next destination - the majestic Alps. After a scenic 3.5 hour transfer, you'll gear up to tackle the next classic climbs: Télégraphe and Galibier. Now the Tour's most visited mountain pass, the peloton first ascended Galibier in 1911. Take on the same route as the pros and understand just what makes the double ascent so tough! Challenging and beautiful, this is one of the great rides of the French Alps. After cresting the top of Galibier, you have a beautiful and fast descent to the town of La Grave, and our hotel for the night, Hotel-Edelweiss. This evening you'll be treated to a cycling-friendly dinner so you can retreat to your bed in time to rest up for tomorrow's special day.

Approximately 32 miles with 3,300 feet of climbing

AVID OPTION:

La Grave to Bardonecchia with Col du Lautaret and Col de l'Echelle double

Approximately 84 miles with 8,200 feet of climbing

DESCRIPTION:

This morning you begin by cycling one of the Tour's most famous climbs and descents, the Col du Lautaret and descent to Briançon. Here is where Alberto Contador and Alexander Vinokourov won some of their most heralded Tour stages. Once in Briançon, make your way to the Vallée Névache, with its quiet roads and stunning scenery. After a short climb over Col de l'Echelle, you'll descend into Bardonecchia, Italy for lunch. Enjoy the superb Italian food and coffee, and a fleeting taste of what makes Italy so magical. Later you have the option to tackle both climbs again, or alternatively opt out for a shuttle back to La Grave. Tonight you are free to explore La Grave to find a great restaurant to refuel before more stunning climbs tomorrow!

AVID OPTION:

La Grave to Alpe d'Huez via Villard Reculas w/ Col du Glandon & Col de la Croix de Fer

Approximately 70 miles with 11,000 feet of climbing

DESCRIPTION:

Welcome to another day of thigh burning climbs and rapid descents. You'll start your day with a gentle descent and incredible views from La Grave, en route to the epic Col du Glandon - first featured in the 1947 Tour and showcased again in Stage 19 of 2013. The base of the col is at the Lac du Verney which often hosts the swim of the Alpe d'Huez triathlon. From there you'll ascend 1150 meters over 24 kilometers. At the top you've earned the fresh alpine air and dramatic mountain views this remote area affords for the short time the road is open (from June to October). As always your Trek Travel guides will have refreshments and snacks available for you to rest and refuel. If you have the legs, continue up the 2.5 kilometers to the summit of nearby Col de la Croix de Fer, featured in last year's Tour. After a satisfying mountain lunch enjoy an incredible descent and the last climb back to our hotel in Alpe d'Huez. Tonight, explore the village of Alpe D'Huez for dinner and celebrate the week's exploits so far.

Approximately 9 miles with 3,900 feet of climbing

AVID OPTION:

Alpe d'Huez Loop with Col de Sarenne Double

Approximately 60 miles with 9,500 feet of climbing

DESCRIPTION:

It's time. The moment you have been waiting for, the classic ascent of Alpe d'Huez, the most revered and famous mountaintop finish in France. With an average grade of 8% and 21 hairpin bends, this lion of a climb will grab and hold all your attention. We'll descend onto the route made famous in the 2013 Tour over the Col de Sarenne to take in the beauty of the mountains, and imagine the pros descending this small and narrow road, before we reach the final climb of the trip, Alpe d'Huez, the ultimate grand finale ride. This climb was first included in the Tour in 1952 and it's often one of the most exciting points in the race as the pros dance on their pedals to the summit, over an average grade of nearly 8%. Take a photo taken on the summit podium and relax over lunch at the top of this mighty mountain and soak up the reward of the grueling ascent and astounding views. Tonight, gather with your traveling companions and guides to raise a glass to the Tour, the legendary riding that makes it famous, heroes past and present and the incredible cycling of these truly epic climbs!

Admire the magnificent panorama of the Oisans glaciers, huddled up in a deckchair on the sunny balcony of your room.

MEETING & DEPARTING

How To Get There

We suggest that you arrive at least one day prior to the trip start, which will enable you to adjust to the time zone and minimize the risk of missing the trip start due to flight-related delays. We recommend that you fly into Pau (PUF) or Tarbes-Lourdes-Pyrenees airport (LDE). There are direct flights to Pau and Tarbes from Paris (CDG or ORY) and some European cities. Air France has several daily options, and early bookers may find cheaper flights with EasyJet although these are less frequent. From the airport you can take a taxi to Lourdes: from Tarbes the taxi is approximately 30 euros and from Pau expect to pay between 70-100 euros.

As the trip ends in Grenoble, we recommend booking your return flight from Lyon (LYS) or Paris Charles de Gaulle (CDG). You can take a TGV from Grenoble to Paris Gare de Lyon station or Lyon. This journey is approximately 3 hours to Paris and 1 hour to Lyon. For tickets and schedules please check www.sncf.fr.

Before: Lourdes, France

If you have the time, consider staying in Lourdes before your trip to experience this unique town. As the second most visited destination in France after Paris, Lourdes attracts some 5 million people each year and is a place of mass pilgrimage from Europe and other parts of the world. Visit the famous grotto where apparitions of the Virgin Mary are reported to have occurred in 1858. The spring water from the grotto is also believed by some to possess healing properties. Lourdes is a fascinating destination unto itself. We recommend the following accommodations for your pre-trip hotel:

Meeting Time And Location

Hotel Gallia & Londres | Lourdes, France

Your Trek Travel guides will meet you at the Hotel Gallia & Londres (26 Avenue Bernadette Soubirous - BP83 Lourdes) at 8:30 AM on the first day of the trip. Your guides will be on hand to welcome you, get you settled in and begin your bike fitting. Once you arrive at the hotel please present yourself at reception and you will be directed to your guides. You also have the option to meet your guides between 3-6pm on the afternoon before your trip starts for your bicycle fitting.

If you will be late for the pick-up or are going to miss it altogether, please inform your guides. You will receive an email a week before the trip start with their names and contact details. If you cannot reach them, please call our first hotel, Hotel Gallia & Londres (+33 (0)5 62 94 35 44), and leave a message with your expected arrival time and contact details. A taxi from the airport to our meeting place at the hotel will take approximately 30 minutes and cost around 40 Euros.

Departing Time And Location

Grenoble TGV Station | Grenoble, France

You will say farewell to your guides at 9:00 AM at the Au Chamois d'Or Boutique Hotel and a private shuttle will take you back to the Grenoble TGV station. Trains run directly to Lyon and Paris, see www.sncf.fr for schedules. Please do not arrange any connections from the station until after 11:00 AM

GRAND HÔTEL MODERNE

After: Grenoble, France

If you have the time, consider staying in Grenoble after your trip to further explore the diverse activities this French town offers. Grenoble has numerous outdoor activities, including via ferrata, a mountain route equipped with fixed cables, ladders, and bridges providing access to otherwise isolated routes to climbers with a variety of skills. Not to be missed in this Rhône-Alpes town, is a ride up the téléphérique: egg-shaped cable cars, les bulles, take you across the Isère river to the bastille, a series of ancient fortifications. Enjoy the view from the summit, then wander the many trails leading down to the city. We recommend the following accommodations for your post-trip hotel:

* Hotels listed above are local properties we love. We do not have special rates available.

FAQS

Trip Changes

Our itineraries are an approximation of our trips. Trek Travel strives to offer each and every guest a vacation of a lifetime on every trip. At times routes, hotels, activities, etc. listed here may change at the discretion of the trip designer or guides to improve the trip experience.

What are the daily rides like?

- Rider Type | 4
- Average Daily Mileage | 54
- Terrain | Mountainous
- Average Daily Elevation | 6,500

On all of our vacations, Trek Travel strives to find quiet, paved secondary roads or bike paths to experience a region; busy roads are avoided as much as possible. Classic Climbs of the Tour is best suited for our Type 4 Riders. Type 4+ Riders will enjoy the extra mileage the avid route options offer. The terrain is mountainous with several mountain passes. See Itinerary for specific daily ride distance and elevation options.

What is the weather going to be like?

The summer months can bring warm days, ranging from the mid 60s to low 80s, with evenings dropping to the mid 50s to mid 60s. When traveling in the mountainous regions of France, it is best to be prepared for variable conditions, as weather can change very quickly, and there is always the chance of snow and rain. We recommend always traveling with rain gear, as well as plenty of breathable layers to provide warmth should the temperature drop.

What are the options for a non-rider travel companion?

This destination is best suited to guests who want to cycle every day. Because of the terrain and/or remoteness of the hotels and riding routes, there are few, if any, non-riding options available. If a non-rider wants to accompany a rider guest on this trip, they would need to spend many hours in the van and/or at the hotels on the trip. Due to this, we strongly discourage non-riders from this destination. As an alternative, call a Trek Travel Trip Consultant at 866.464.8735 for trip suggestions where more non-rider activities are available, such as:

- Provence
- Tuscany

If I book a tour, can I be guaranteed that it will run?

If you're going we're going on almost all our trips. Trips with 1 guest booked are guaranteed to run. Select trips like Cross Country, Race and Special Edition trips require a minimum number of guests to run and are not guaranteed until that number is reached. Contact your Trip Consultant for more details.

In the event that a departure has low enrollment, we will notify guests at 60-90 days before departure to give the option to select a different date with more guests booked. Please do not reserve airfare before confirming your Trek Travel trip.

What kind of information is provided?

When a trip is booked, a guest confirmation letter is immediately sent out. One week prior to the trip start you will receive an email containing a trip start meeting location reminder and any last minute information that you will need to know before your trip. Once you arrive at your destination Trek Travel staff will brief you on the day-to-day plan for the trip and provide you with daily route guides and a detailed map allowing you to ride with complete confidence and independence.

What if I have to change or cancel my trip?

We understand things happen in life and sometimes you have to cancel or change your bike tour. We want to make it as easy as possible to do so and below you will find our timeline. If you ever have a question, just give us a call, 866 464 8735. Read our cancellation policy.
